3. Overview regarding the reporting of data leaks and the information to be provided.

what the Processor could and couldn't do with the Personal Data (hereinafter: "Data Processing Agreement").

1. Definitions:

The terms used in this Data Processing Agreement are taken from the General Data Protection Regulation and have the following meaning:

- 1.1. Personal Data: all information about an identified or identifiable individual (hereinafter: "Data Subject"); an identifiable individual who can be identified directly or indirectly, in particular by means of an identifier such as a name, an identification number, locations data, an online identifier or one or more elements characteristic of the physical, physiological, genetic, psychological, economic, cultural or social identity of that individual.

- 1.2. Processing: an operation or a set of operations relating to Personal Data or a set of Personal Data, whether or not carried out via automated processes, such as collecting, recording, organizing, structuring, storing, updating or modifying, retrieving, consulting, using, providing by means of transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, aligning or combining, blocking, erasing or destroying data.
- 1.3. Controller: a natural or legal person, a government agency, a service or any other body that, individually or jointly with others, determines the purpose and means of the processing of Personal Data; if the purposes and means of this processing are laid down in Union or Member State law, it may specify who is the Controller or according to which criteria it is designated.
- 1.4. Processor: a natural or legal person, a government agency, a service or another body that processes Personal Data on behalf of the Controller.
- 1.5. Data subject: identified or identifiable individual to whom the processed Personal Data relate.
- 1.6. Data Processing Agreement: this agreement including the associated privacy statement of DeliveryMatch B.V.
- 1.7. The Agreement: the main agreement that results from this Data Processing Agreement.
- 1.8. Infringement related to Personal Data: breach of security that inadvertently or unlawfully leads to the destruction, loss, modification or unauthorized disclosure of or unauthorized access to transmitted, stored or otherwise processed data (hereinafter: "Security Breach").
- 1.9. Data protection impact assessment: carrying out an assessment, prior to carrying out the processing, of the effect of the intended processing activities on the protection of the Personal Data.
- 1.10. Supervisory Authority: an independent governmental body responsible for supervising compliance with the law relating to the processing of Personal Data. In the Netherlands, this is the Dutch Data Protection Authority.

2. Establishment, duration and termination of this Data Processing Agreement

- 2.1. This Data Processing Agreement takes effect on the data on which the Parties sign it.
- 2.2. This Data Processing Agreement is part of the Agreement and will apply for as long as the Agreement lasts.
- 2.3. If the Agreement ends, this Data Processing Agreement ends automatically; the Data Processing Agreement cannot be terminated separately.
- 2.4. After the termination of this Data Processing Agreement, the current obligations for the Processor, such as the reporting of data leaks, in which the Personal Data are involved, and the duty of confidentiality will continue.

3. Processing Personal Data

- 3.1. The Processor will only process Personal Data in assignment of the Controller and has no control over the Personal Data. The Processor follows the instructions of the Controller on this and the Processor may not process the Personal Data in any other way, unless the Controller gives permission or instructions in advance.
- 3.2. The associated privacy statement of DeliveryMatch B.V. shows which Personal Data the Processor will process exactly and for which processing purposes.
- 3.3. The Processor complies with the law and processes the data in a proper, careful and transparent manner.
- 3.4. The Processor may not involve other persons or organizations in the processing of the Personal Data without prior written consent of the Controller.
- 3.5. If the Processor, with permission of the Controller, involves other organizations, they must at least meet the requirements set out in this Data Processing Agreement.
- 3.6. When the Controller receives a request from a Data Subject who wishes to exercise his or her privacy rights, the Processor will be involved in this within a period of 14 days. These rights consist of a request for inspection, correction, addition, removal or protection, object to the processing of the Personal Data and a request for transferability of the personal data.
- 3.7. When the Controller requests that the Processor provides the Controller with information, the Processor will provide the information that the Controller needs to perform a Data Protection Effect Assessment. The Controller needs this to be able to estimate the risk of the Processing that the Processor is performing on behalf of the Controller.

4. Protecting Personal Data

- 4.1. The Processor ensures that Personal Data is secured sufficiently. To prevent loss and unlawful processing the Processor takes appropriate technical and organizational measures.
- 4.2. These measures are tailored to the risk of the processing. An overview of these measures and the policy on this can be found in the associated privacy statement of DeliveryMatch B.V.
- 4.3. As a control, the Processor will send a report to the Controller every year that includes the security measures taken and any attention and / or improvement points. The Processor will not charge the Controller for this.
- 4.4. The Controller may carry out an inspection or audit in the Processor's organization to determine whether the processing of the Personal Data complies with the law and the agreements in this Data Processing Agreement. The Processor will provide cooperation, including granting access to buildings and databases and making all relevant information available.

- 4.5. The costs for performing this audit will be for account of the Processor if it appears that the Processor does not comply with the obligations in this Data Processing Agreement.
- 4.6. The control of the overall processing of Personal Data by the Processor can, in addition to the audit possibility, also take place via self-evaluation. The Processor will hereby provide the Controller with a report in which is demonstrated that the Processor complies with the law and the agreements in this Data Processing Agreement. This report must be signed by a board member within the Processor's organization.
- 4.7. If one of the Parties think that a change in the protective measures is necessary, the Parties will discuss the change thereof. The costs for changing the security measures are for the account of the Party who incurs the costs.

5. Exporting Personal Data

- 5.1. The Processor may not have Personal Data processed by other persons or organizations outside the European Economic Area (EEA), without having received prior written permission from the Controller.

6. Confidentially

- 6.1. The Processor will keep the Personal Data provided secret, unless this is not possible on the basis of a legal obligation.
- 6.2. The Processor will ensure that staff and assigned assistants also comply with this confidentiality by including a duty of confidentiality in the (employment) contracts.

7. Data leaks

- 7.1. In case of a discovery of a possible data leak the Processor will inform the Controller about this within 24 hours via (contact) and provide the Controller with the information that is indicated in the associated privacy statement of DeliveryMatch B.V., so that the Controller can make a report to the Supervisor if necessary.
- 7.2. After reporting a data leak to the Controller, the Processor will keep the Controller informed of new developments regarding the data leak and the measures that have been taken to limit and end the size of the data leak and to prevent a similar incident in the future.
- 7.3. The Processor is not permitted to report the data leak to the Supervisor and the Processor may not inform the Data Subjects about the data leak. This is the responsibility of the Controller.
- 7.4. Any costs incurred to resolve the data leak and to prevent it in the future will be charged to the person who incurs the costs.

8. Liability

- 8.1. The Controller will hold the Processor liable if the Processor fails to comply with the obligations this Data Processing Agreement.

- 8.2. The Processor is liable for all damage suffered as a result of non-compliance with the law and the provisions of this Data Processing Agreement, insofar as this has been caused by the Processor's work.
- 8.3. If the Processor violates the obligations in this Data Processing Agreement, the Controller reserves the right to claim compensation.
- 8.4. The Processor is liable for the administrative fine imposed on the Controller by the Supervisor if the damage suffered is the result of the Processor's unlawful or negligent actions.
- 8.5. The Controller is not liable for claims of the Data Subjects or other persons and organizations with whom the Processor have entered into the cooperation or of which the Processor processes Personal Data, if this is the result of the Processor's unlawful or negligent actions.

9. Return of Personal Data and storage period

- 9.1. After terminating this Data Processing Agreement, the Processor will return the Personal Data. Any Personal Data left behind will be destroyed in a careful and safe manner.
- 9.2. The Personal Data that the Processor processes in accordance with this Processor Agreement will be destroyed after expiration of the legal retention period and / or at the request of the Controller. A legal retention period exists, for example, when the Processor have to keep the Personal Data for tax reasons.
- 9.3. After returning and / or destroying the Personal Data, the Processor will declare to the Controller in writing that the Processor no longer has the Personal Data.

10. Final provisions

- 10.1. This Data Processing Agreement is part of the Agreement. All rights and obligations under the Agreement are therefore also applicable to the Data Processing Agreement.
- 10.2. In the event of any inconsistencies between the provisions in the Data Processing Agreement and the Agreement, the provisions of this Processing Agreement apply.
- 10.3. Deviations from this Data Processing Agreement are only valid if the Parties agree this in writing.
- 10.4. Dutch law applies to this Data Processing Agreement and the Processor's activities.
- 10.5. The judge in the court in the area where the Controller's company is established determines in any disputes between the Parties.

PROCEDURE SECURITY BREACHES

What is a security incident and when should this be reported?

A data leak is a security incident in which Personal Data, which the Processor manages on behalf of the Controller, may have been lost or inadvertently accessed by third parties. This concerns data that can be linked to these persons, such as, but not limited to, names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, log in data, cookies, IP addresses or identifying information of computers or telephones.

Below a number of examples of security incidents that must be reported to the Dutch Data Protection Authority are described:

- The website with login data has been hacked or is accessible to third parties.
- Loss of a laptop or USB stick with personal data.
- Salary records of employees were accidentally sent to the wrong persons.
- Letters or e-mails are sent to the wrong address.
- An attack by a hacker on the ICT system.
- A lost or stolen phone that contains personal data.

What to do in case of doubt?

- If you are not sure whether or not there is a security incident on the basis of the above, you should in any case ask the following questions as an aid:
- Is there a technical or physical security problem?

- Is the problem about the security of Personal Data? IP addresses, telephone numbers or identifying data, for example from hardware, may also be included.
- Is it sensitive data such as race, health data, information about a person's financial situation, such as salary or data that can be committed with (identity) fraud, such as a Citizen Service Number?
- Have large amounts of personal data become unintentionally accessible to third parties?
- Is it about data from vulnerable groups such as children?
- Are the Personal Data managed by a supplier?

In case of doubt always contact the Data Protection Officer of DeliveryMatch B.V..
Where to report the security incident? When you detect a security incident contact immediately the Data Protection Officer of DeliveryMatch B.V..
